Thank you for joining Blyth Running Club.

The Club runs from Blyth Sports Centre every Monday & Wednesday at 7.00pm Prompt. It is best to arrive at 6.45pm to establish your running group for that evening.

We also meet every Sunday, again at the Sports Centre, 9.00am.

We have free use of male and female lockup changing rooms and showers at all sessions.

Any race entries, kit enquiries, coaching questions etc. will be dealt with Monday & Wednesday evenings, in the BAR.

The price of a club vest is £12.00, which should be worn in all competitions where a race permit has been obtained and is run under uk:athletics laws.

Club subscriptions are due on the 1st of January each year; regardless of the date you joined the club. (Cheques made payable to Blyth Running Club). There is a period of grace of 3 months, after which your membership will be deemed to have lapsed. Club race entries and the Grand Prix are open for paid up members only.

To keep you informed, it is best to read the notice board in the sports centre every week, or go on line to www.blythrunningclub.org.uk You will find information regarding races, training, social events and meetings.
